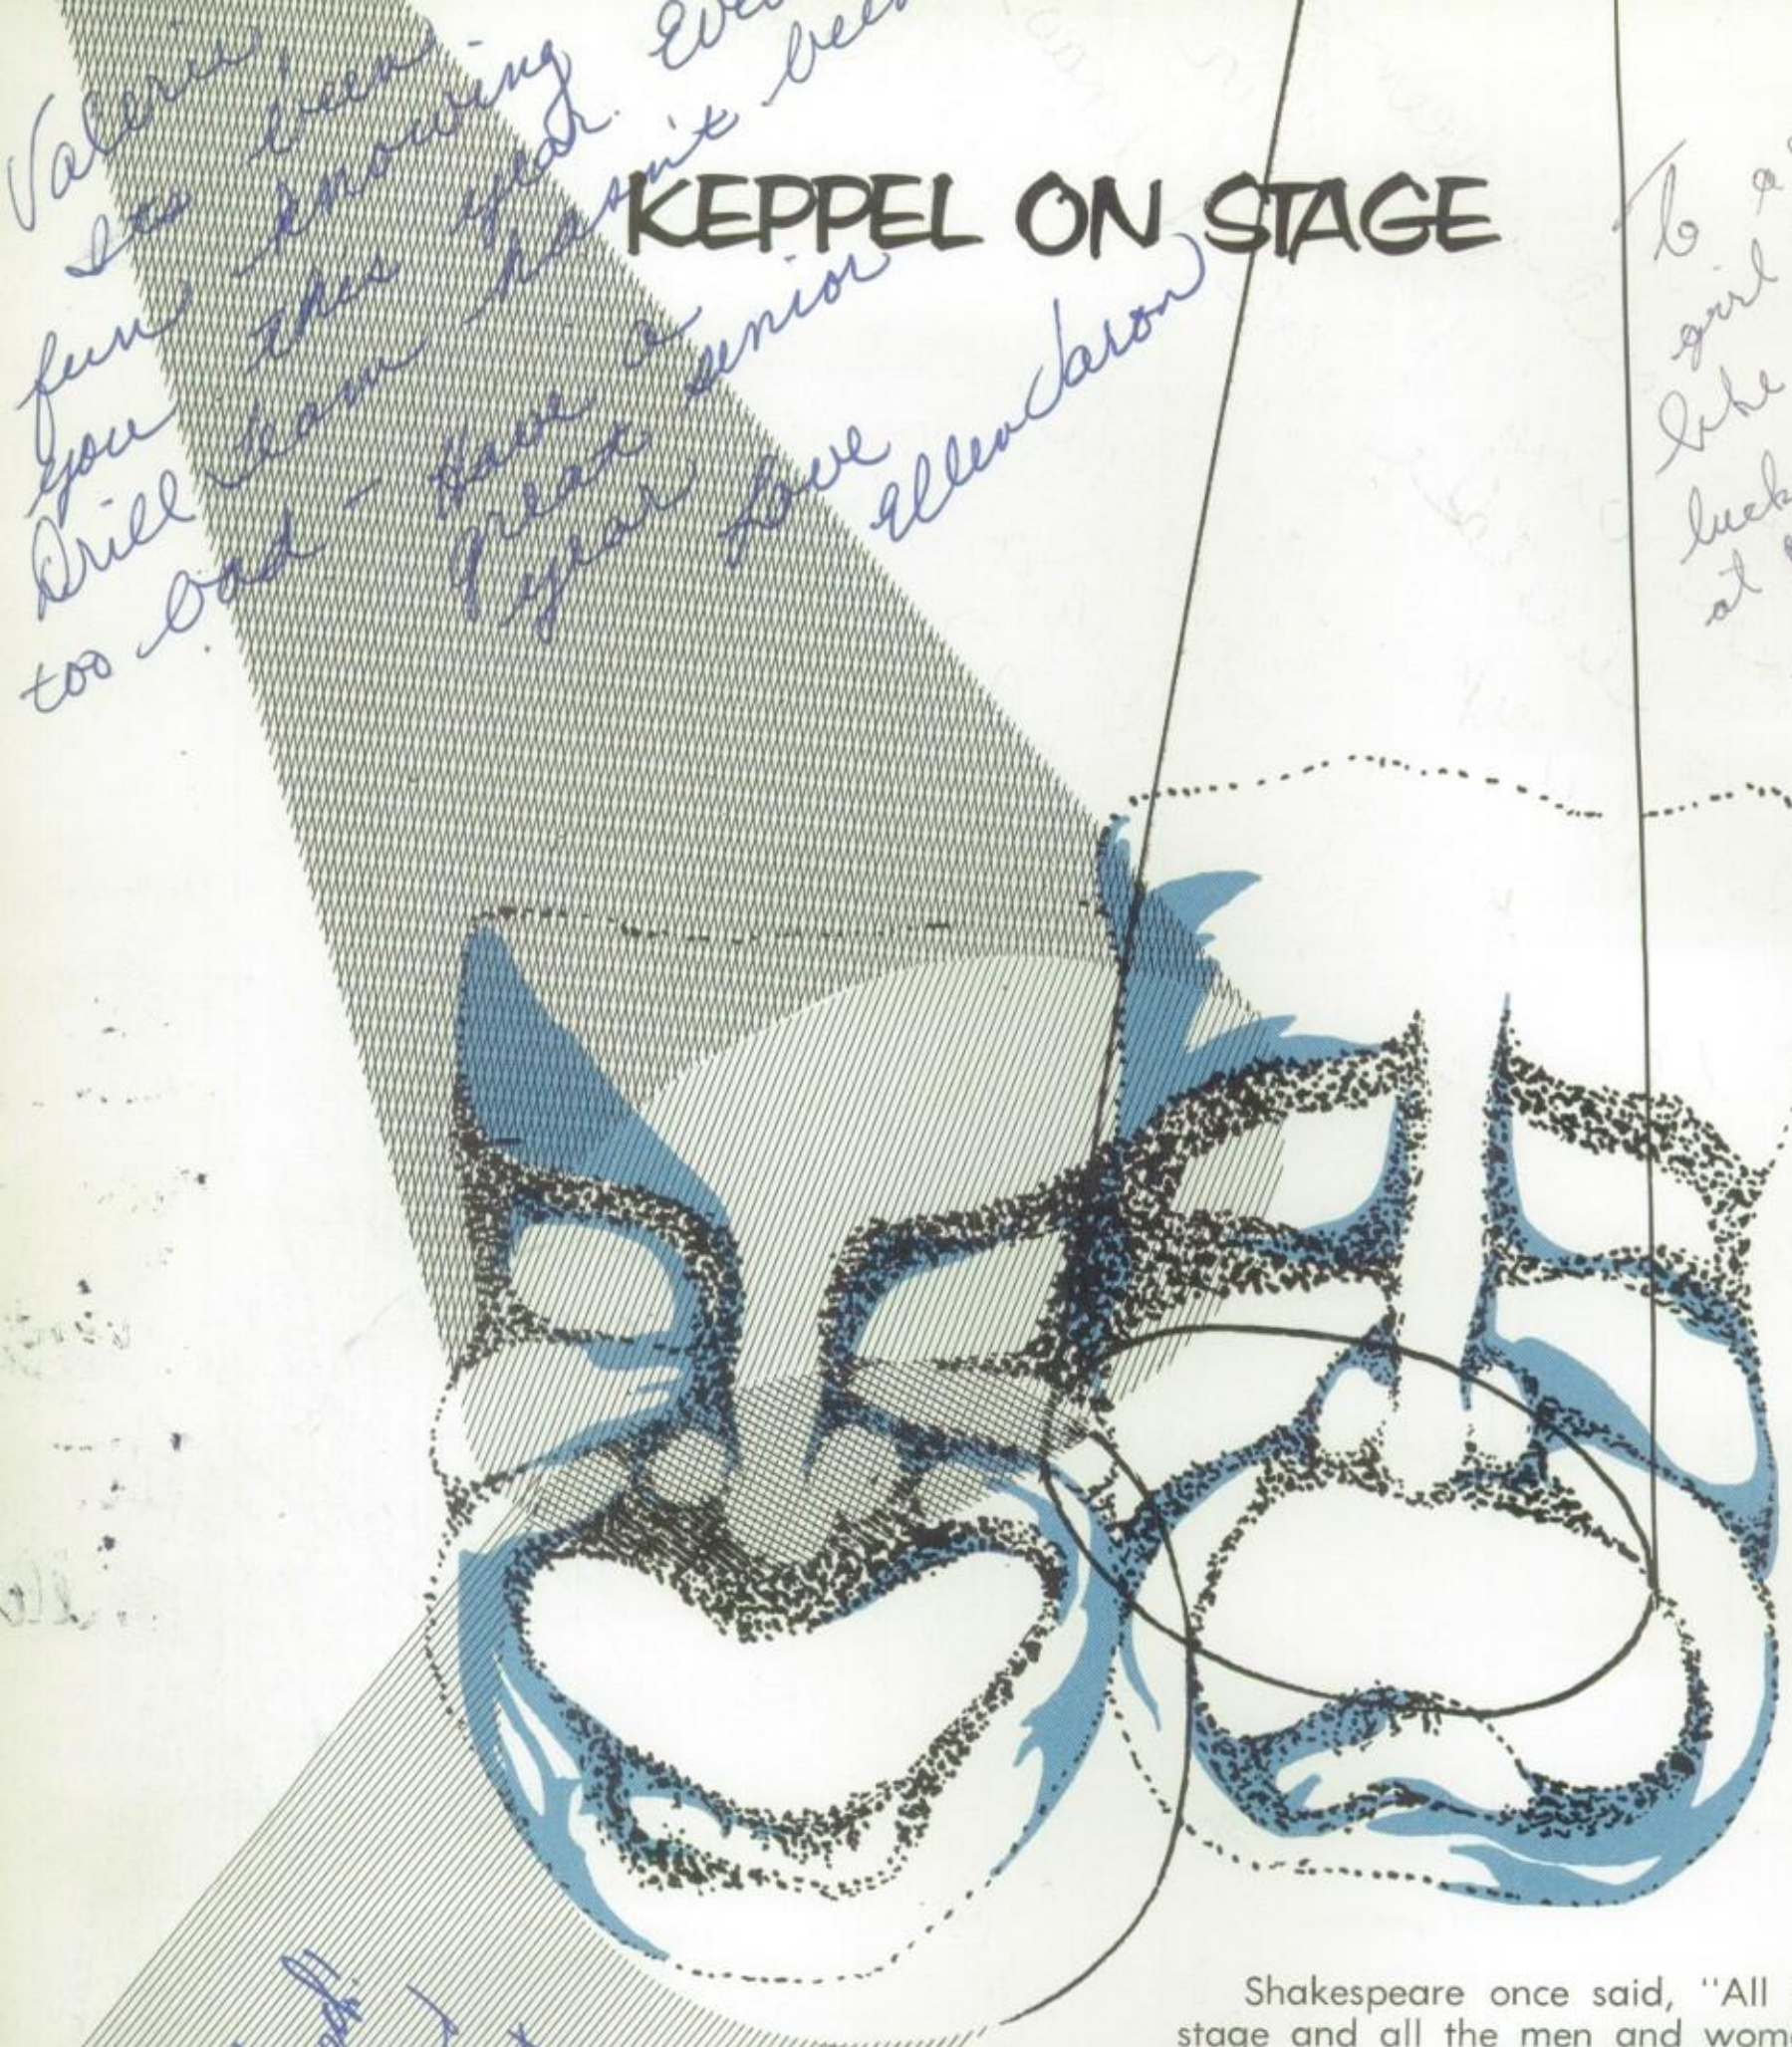
KEPPEL ON STAGE



Shakespeare once said, "All the world's a stage and all the men and women are merely players." Mark Keppel itself could be presented as a play with the freshmen as Act I, the sophomores as Act II, the juniors as Act III, and the seniors as the grand finale. This year the theme of our Teocalli is KEPPEL ON STAGE. If you look carefully at each division page a familiar play will undoubtedly come very much alive.

Valerie,
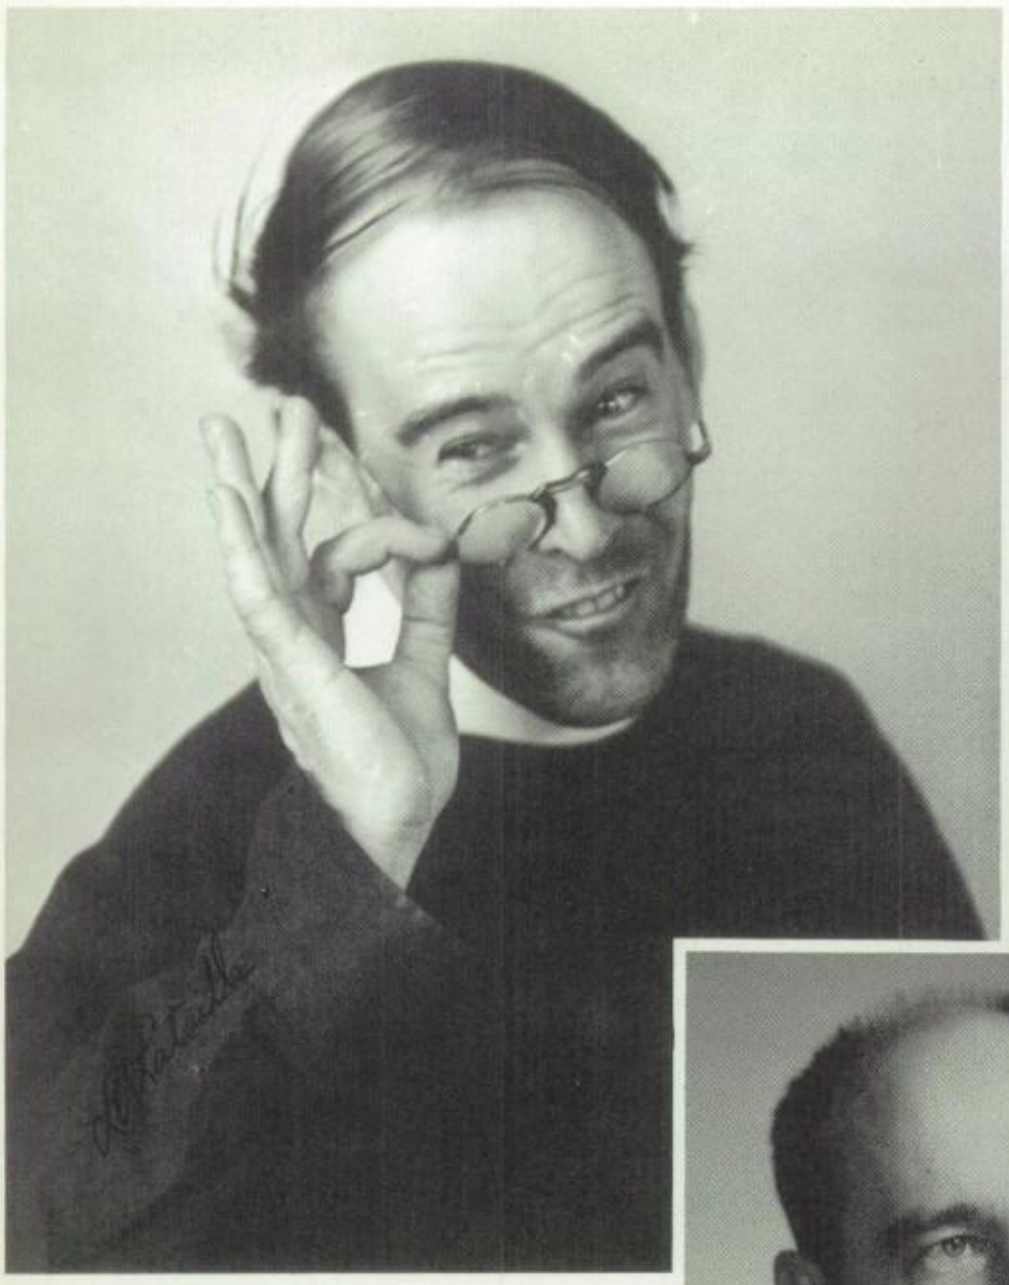
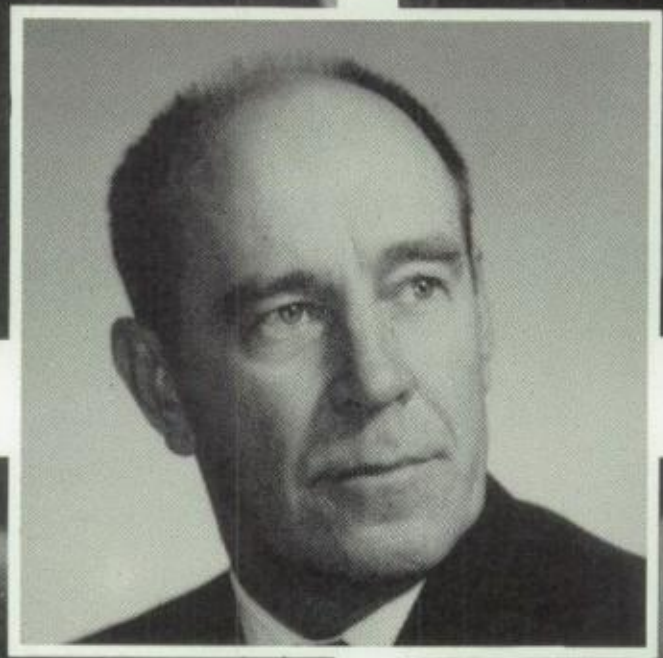
It's sure been great knowing you this past year in Drill Team and Let. Maybe we'll have some classes together again next year. Just think, we'll be seniors next year, and after that: well, I'll wait and see what happens then. Next year the Drill Team is really going to be great. Keep up the good work.
See you next year.
Lot's of luck,
Love,
Christie Houston





DEDICATION

Mr. Fred Campbell is the head of Mark Keppel's outstanding speech department. Having received his bachelor's degree at Los Angeles State College and his master's degree at UCLA, Mr. Campbell decided to become a teacher. He came to Mark Keppel in the fall of 1953 from a teaching job at a junior college in the San Fernando Valley.

Keppel's unique radio department is the result of Mr. Campbell's constant efforts. Having appeared in New York radio shows for many years, it's no wonder he knows so much about radio mechanics. In one production entitled Suspense he starred with Danny Kaye. As you can see from the pictures on the left, Mr. Campbell was a remarkably talented character actor.

With the theme of our annual being "Keppel on Stage" it is indeed fitting that we dedicate the 1966 Teocalli to Mr. Fred Campbell.

VALERIE,

JUST THINK WE'RE SENIORS! I JUST CAN'T BELIEVE IT. THESE YEARS HAVE GONE BY SO FAST. THINGS THAT HAPPENED WHEN WE WERE FRESHMEN SEEM LIKE YESTERDAY. I SOMETIMES WONDER WHAT WE'LL THINK ABOUT SOME TEN YEARS ~~AGO~~ FROM NOW. WHEN WE LOOK BACK ON OUR YEARS IN HIGH SCHOOL. THE BEST OF LUCK ALWAYS. HAVE A GREAT SUMMER. SEE YOU NEXT YEAR.

LOVE ALL
JACKIE

Val,
I hope you have a real fantastic summer. I'm sure it will be a change.
Let me know what it's like

thinking of you. (HA HA)

Its been fun having you in two classes this year and in getting to know you. Have a good summer. your friend

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Mr. Fluster, President

Mr. Lane

Mrs. Mather

Mr. Westerfield

Mr. Van Winkle

Dr. Drake, Superintendent of Schools

BOARD OF SUPERINTENDENTS

The Board of Superintendents is composed of four competent members whose purpose is to supervise the Alhambra School System. This includes handling the school funds, choosing the curriculum, and employing capable district personnel. We wish to express our gratitude for the fine work they have done this past year.

Composed of five community-elected citizens, the Board of Education is vitally interested in the advancement of the school's academic standards. These capable members strive to further improve the teaching methods and consider the selection of our school materials and supplies. The students of Mark Keppel sincerely appreciate the many accomplishments of our Board.

Dr. Ensz

Mr. Gray

Mr. Scanlon

PRINCIPAL

MR. LAWSON

This year's theme being "Keppel on Stage," it is a privilege to introduce the director of "the greatest show in Alhambra," Mr. Bruce M. Lawson, principal. Not only is Mr. Lawson well known for his ability to regulate this huge operation, but his genuine concern for the problems of the Keppel cast has led to a new high in "cast-management" relationships. Under his leadership the 1966 edition of "Keppel on Stage" has truly been a good show.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPALS

In the past twenty-five years Mark Keppel High School has developed some shining traditions of excellence. It is my hope that as we embark on the next quarter of a century of progress this school year will further enhance its record of building upon and enlarging our fine traditions so that we might stand at the top of the list of fine educational institutions.

James F Kemp

As civilization progresses and develops it becomes more and more complex. It is necessary, therefore, for each individual, if he wishes to achieve happiness and satisfaction, to equip himself to deal with the complications of modern living. The only safe road to a complete and useful life is education and each individual student must want to achieve this under his own power. May each of you, at some point in your career, find this desire to want to know and understand.

R. S. Luetkemeier

We have a school of which we can be very proud. It is ever-changing and for that we are grateful for in change there is growth.

The year 1965-66 has seen two important changes, the use of a computer for the keeping of many grades, records, and attendance, and the change in the citizenship rating from a merit-detention method to a more flexible anecdotal procedure.

Our whole student body is to be commended for its fine spirit and its high level of academic achievement.

OUR COUNSELORS

Some are tall, some are short,
Some are women, some are men,
Some smile with their hearts,
Others with their eyes,
But all are gifted with a richness of understanding of the needs of high school students.

They have made us aware of our educational, social, and vocational needs.

They have helped us to develop individuality, self-understanding and self-reliance, and increased skills in making personal judgments.

To them, our thanks.

The symbols of a king represent Mark Keppel's most highly honored organization — Crown and Sceptre, the Senior Honor Society. It was founded in 1957 to give special recognition to the outstanding students of each year's senior class.

Each spring, sixteen students—eight girls and eight boys—are selected from the Junior class to become members of this honorary society. They are selected on the basis of high scholastic achievement, social activity, and participation in school functions. The new members are installed at a special assembly and are presented a small gold pin to symbolize their outstanding accomplishments.

It is the responsibility of the graduating members of the society, along with the faculty, to select the sixteen students of the junior class who are to be honored as members for the following year. The members of this organization proudly wear the symbols of their outstanding achievement—the Crown and Sceptre.

Kia Ora! ("Hi" in the language of the Maoris--the Polynesian race which we have in New Zealand).

I am so glad to have the opportunity here of thanking you all for helping to give me such a fantastic year and such wonderful memories of the United States to carry back to New Zealand with me—to be an AFSer, I think, is the most marvelous experience anyone could ever have.

I have found during my stay here that Americans truly live up to their reputation of friendliness and hospitality: From the very start I was made to feel at home, and my American high school played an enormous part in helping towards this feeling, even though on the first day of school I thought I was going to be trampled to death in the halls! (To add to the confusion I tried to walk on the left, as we drive cars on that side at home!) Every single person I have talked to has been so friendly, interested, and understanding, especially with respect to my first what-must-have-seemed-silly questions; for example, "What are those boys doing with those helmets on?" (football) and, "Why is he catching that little ball with a boxing glove?" (baseball). And what a thrill it was to receive my class ring, as we don't have anything like that at home.

But now the time is nearing to go, to leave my American friends, and I can't thank you all enough for everything you've done for me. I hope to return to the United States some day, and perhaps see some of you again, (if any of you ever visit New Zealand, do come and see me) but whether I do or not, I will always remember for the rest of my life my second home in America, and specially everyone at Keppel, which has come to mean so much to me. Good luck to you all, always.

JUNIOR CLASS

The junior class added much to the 1965 Homecoming parade with their float that took first place. They followed last year's precedent with another Keppel day at Disneyland that they co-sponsored with second semester Cabinet. The prom was an event they worked on until the big night. The senior class can really thank the juniors for such a memorable prom.

FRESHMAN CLASS

The freshmen took on a big job this year. They raised half the money needed to pay for our basketball scoreboard by selling candy. If this year was any example of what the class of 1969 could do, then Keppel has a lot to look forward to in the next three years.

FALL SEMESTER CABINET

ROMAN Gallego was the outstanding student body president of the fall 1965 semester. His cabinet worked very hard to give us all a semester to remember.

September 24, 1965 was a night all Keppel will never forget. First, there was a pizza rally at the Village Inn. Then all the kids marched to Keppel's football field to watch the game against Baldwin Park. Before the game there was a ceremony dedicating Aztec Stadium.

Another successful first this fall semester was a semi-formal Winter Dance. The other dances were also successful this year, one of the favorites being Las Vegas Night where everybody gambled at the wheel of fortune.

The student body can thank the Fall Cabinet for such a fun-filled first semester.

SPRING CABINET

The Mark Keppel Cabinet consists of elected officers who represent the entire student body. Their job is to provide worthwhile activities for the school. Spring semester Cabinet was unusually active this year under their remarkable president, Peter Kane. Pete added a unique quality to our assemblies with his unforgettable Bill Cosby routines. Cabinet co-sponsored the second trip to Disneyland along with the junior class. A fun-filled Mardi Gras was planned along with many other memorable activities.

As a token of each semester, Cabinet is given a holiday from school to go on a special trip. In this way the spring Cabinet and all Cabinets are congratulated and thanked for giving the student body a semester to remember.

At Christmas we make stockings out of felt and fill them with items hospital patients would usually need. After distributing them to the patients, we wind up the day by singing Christmas Carols while we distribute the lemonade and cookies. While we receive nothing in return, we all know that we are helping people enjoy their holidays more.

Aztec Staff

Aztec staff's main concern is publishing Mark Keppel's newspaper, "The Aztec". Meeting every day during third period, the staff members' objective is to provide news, articles, features, interviews, editorials, and coverage of sports events in order to provide something of interest to each member of the student body.

"Letters to the Editor," submitted to either staff members or placed in the Aztec Suggestion Box, gives Keppelites an opportunity to express their opinions on student life and happening around school.

In addition to publishing and distributing regular issues of "The Aztec" every other Friday for the wee price of five cents per copy, the staff this year also put out three special two-page editions, Homecoming, first day after Christmas vacation, and first day of school.

Staff members are selected from the second year journalism class and headed by a student body elected Editor-in-Chief.

FALL BACKWARDS DANCE

The night of November 20 found many Keppelites immersed in an atmosphere of the wild, wild west. A pair of saloon doors pointed the cowboys, Indians, mountain men, and old soldiers toward the bar and saloon tables. Notes of music wound around the first few couples on the dance floor. Slowly the sounds were muffled and the echo was barely audible as more and more guests arrived. Situated in one corner, a hay stack became the destination for many, in order that they may follow the old traditions of getting pictures taken. Luckily, as the night sped by, there were no fist fight or gun fight participants with which to fill the strongly built, well guarded jail. Everyone got along very well and the evening was a great success.

Do you think she's been true to me?

Where's the bathroom?

Unhand me, you fiend!

If they don't stop staring at me I'll hit them with my purse!

wild wild west

Have you ever held hands wih a cactus?

Val
Well, we've been through a lot together (you know what I mean Song and all) I'll never forget our friendship - I hope it always continues 'cause you're one of the sweetest girls I know. Be good always and I hope you get what you want - OR JUST! deserve it! I hope you and Linda see you next year - it's gonna be a blast - greatest!
Love,
Donna Lenz

My horse is bigger than your horse.

Arsenic and

The third and fourth days of December, 1965, Keppelites had a glimpse of what went on in the Brewster house on an average day. It seems that two little old ladies, Abby and Martha Brewster by name, had a curious habit of collecting deceased old gentlemen (whom they disposed of by a strange concoction of arsenic and elderberry wine) and burying them in their cellar. The audience reacted with each suspense filled funeral service and each "charge!" of "Teddy Roosevelt" (a disturbed nephew) up San Juan Hill (the house staircase). The show was concluded when Teddy was taken off to Happydale Sanitarium and Aunts Abby and Martha gave Mr. Witherspoon, of Happydale, a glass of homemade elderberry wine.

"If you think there's anything I fear."

"Transporting Mr. Spinalzoto I fear."

"She's lying, I think she's dangerous."

"That fellow wasn't very smart."

"Haven't tasted this since I was a boy."

"Panama Canal in the cellar?"

Feast of Lights

"Christmas makes the rest of the year worthwhile," sighed Charlie Brown. Seeing Mark Keppel at Christmas time one realizes how right Charlie was. There was no snow covering the ground, and the sun was unusually bright, but the Keppel Halls were filled with holiday cheer. It was dress-up day, and nearly everyone attempted to look especially nice. Junior Red Cross again collected presents for the needy. Members of Junior Exchange led each class down the main halls where Keppelites gave their gifts. The spirit of giving was especially evident as the presents piled around the school Christmas tree. Next on the agenda was a Feast of Lights assembly consisting of the choirs and band. As each student left Mark Keppel that day it was very likely they said to themselves, "Christmas certainly makes the rest of the year worthwhile." I wonder where we've heard that before.

THE PARADE FOR THE PLAY, "THE LONDON MERCHANT."

THE CITIZEN'S WIFE TELLING THE AUDIENCE ABOUT HER WONDERFUL RALPH.

RALPH BRAVELY TAKES THE CONSEQUENCES OF SAVING A DISTRESSED DAMSEL.

THE TWO LOVERS; JASPER AND LUCE, PLOTTING THEIR PLAN.

How would a group of professional actors and actresses react if on opening night some loud-mouthed lout and his wife stepped out of the audience and demanded their stumble-bum apprentice be inserted into the production? Would they go on like true troopers or give up?

This is how the play, The Knight of the Burning Pestle, begins. The play being performed by the professional troupe is called The London Merchant. The play in which the apprentice has the leading role is called The Knight of the Burning Pestle.

Besides the two plays being put on on stage the two people who came out of the audience decide to be directors and critics. They sit by the stage and comment on the progress of both plays, thus adding to the confusion, hilarity and good fun of the production.

Week of

The Week of Fine Arts was presented by the Mark Keppel music and art departments during the week of February 28 through March 5. This was the first week long festival presented at Keppel and many hours of preparation went into making it a success.

Performing during the festival were soloists, cellists, pianists, choral and glee organizations, and members of a dramatic group.

The week was a thrill to both the performers and those in the audience. We hope that in the future more plans will be made for other Weeks of Fine Art.

The outstanding Occidental College Glee Clubs performed under the direction of Dr. Harold Swan.

Tenor soloist Paul Mayo sings during the Week of Fine Arts.

Various samples of work from the art department.

A Cappella sings the beautiful Shubert Mass.

Fine Arts

Student artwork was displayed in the foyer.

A Cappella performs the Bach Cantata with harpsichord accompaniment.

Chamber Choir sang a selection of madrigal songs.

The Aztec band entertained with various selections.

A BIG ROUND OF APPLAUSE SHOULD BE GIVEN TO MR. GRUBBS AND HIS PHOTOGRAPHERS: BOB HARPER, TOM DE YAMPERT, NORM MADDEN AND LEE TINKHAM.

CINDY KING HAS EARNED ARMFULS OF BOUQUETS FOR HER EXCEPTIONAL PERFORMANCE AS ART EDITOR.

A GRATEFUL ACCOLADE IS ESPECIALLY IN ORDER FOR THE OUTSTANDING DIRECTION GIVEN BY MR. WARNER, OUR ADVISOR. THIS IS HIS LAST YEAR, AND I WANT TO THANK HIM OVER AND OVER AGAIN FOR EVERYTHING HE'S DONE.

KAREN GARVIN, MY WONDERFUL ASSISTANT EDITOR, THROUGH HER LOYALTY, UNTIRING EFFORTS, AND DEDICATION TO HER JOB, HAS GAINED A STANDING OVATION.

LAST OF ALL I WANT TO RECOGNIZE THE ENTIRE STUDENT BODY AND FACULTY WHO ARE THE REAL ACTORS, FOR WITHOUT THEM THERE WOULD BE AN EMPTY STAGE.

THANK YOU.

Pam King
